

Improving Access to Rural Providers

Prairie Health Ventures (PHV) now supports member leadership teams even more, with a contingency physician and advanced practice recruiting program.

We understand the challenges you face and how important it is for members to provide excellent care to their communities. Responding to member requests and establishing a new partnership, we give members a broad network to leverage, along with insight into what it takes to make qualified placements.

With over 25 years of proven success, our partners bring you the experience needed to recruit physicians, nurse practitioners, and physician assistants nationwide to work in your communities.

Why use PHV partners for your provider recruiting needs?

When added focus is needed to achieve results, we'll be an extension of your leadership team to support your unique goals to staff and develop a high performing organization.
