Propio Language Services Offers Large Cost Savings Opportunity for Premier Members

Language services play a vital role in healthcare. In order for healthcare organizations to service all patients effectively, it is essential to have access to quality interpreting. All healthcare organizations should seek a language service partner who has the ability to scale, provide interpreting across multiple platforms, has a strong quality assurance program, and affordable pricing.

Propio is one of the largest language service providers in North America. Propio serves over 5,000 different accounts, primarily healthcare organizations. Our services consist of over-the-phone interpretation, video interpretation, in-person interpretation, and document translation.

We deliver solutions that:

- Optimizes levels of patient and caregiver satisfaction
- Provides faster connect times to interpreters
- Offers 24/7 interpreting services

We accomplish this through investment in interpreters, technology and innovation in areas of client experience, patient experience, device integration and operation processes.
